Transplantation for people with HIV

Select transplant centers are offering kidney and/or liver transplantation as an option to eligible people with HIV.

- Must meet criteria for transplantation
- Must have a T-cell count >200 (kidney) or > 100 (liver)
- Must meet HIV viral load criteria depending on which organ is needed
- Patients with certain Opportunistic Infections in the past will be considered
- Pediatric patients are being enrolled at several participating centers

Contact Us

UCSF Main Site

© 2014 The Regents of the University of California

Source URL: https://hivtransplant.ucsf.edu/transplantation-people-hiv